

“For an Institution like Northwestern Memorial Hospital, which built much, but nothing of architectural significance, a commitment can be expected to adapt and preserve Prentice, as a legacy to a maverick Architect and a contribution to Chicago’s vitality and place of architectural excellence”.

Helmut Jahn
Shanghai, April 13th, 2011