Parkside Apartments to Receive Statewide Preservation Award

Chicago, Ill. – On Saturday, October 29, the Parkside Apartments in Kewanee will be one of nine historic sites honored by Landmarks Illinois as part of the Richard H. Driehaus Foundation Preservation Awards. This 17th-annual event honors individuals, organizations, and projects throughout the state that represent excellence in historic preservation.

“This year’s award-winning projects are a testament to the deep commitment of preservationists across the state,” said Jim Peters, President of Landmarks Illinois.

During the 1990s this former hotel was being used as a rooming house and was falling into disrepair. The building was purchased in 2006 by the Henry County Housing Development Group which updated it for modern living accommodations.

Built as the Parkside Hotel in 1915 (with an addition in 1931), it was known as the Hotel Kewanee from 1950 on. Using historic documents, plans, and photographs, original hotel rooms have been converted into apartments, and designed to accommodate the wide hallways and transoms over the doorways. The façade and windows were restored and repaired. Even after vandalism destroyed the original front desk, marble salvaged from the building was used to construct a new one.

“This project not only provides affordable housing,” the awards jury noted, “but has also helped spark an interest in preserving and restoring other historic buildings in the community.”

Other award winners around the state were:

- Ancel House, Glencoe—Restoration
- Champaign County Courthouse, Urbana—Reconstruction
- Classic Cinemas, Various Locations—Stewardship
- Clayville Restoration Project, Pleasant Plains—Advocacy
- Jay and Mary Matson, Galesburg—President’s Award for Lifetime Achievement
- Municipal Center River Wall and Plaza, St. Charles—Restoration
- Scully Building, Lincoln—Rehabilitation
- Sullivan Center, Chicago—Project of the Year for Restoration

Since 1994, Landmarks Illinois has been assisted by a generous grant from the Richard H. Driehaus Foundation to honor those whose work demonstrates a commitment to excellence in historic preservation and inspire others to take action to preserve, protect and promote historic resources throughout Illinois.

The award itself is a small-scale replica of the entrance arch and a portion of the Trading Room from Louis Sullivan's Chicago Stock Exchange building, which was demolished in 1972. The fight to save this important part of Chicago's built environment led to the founding of Landmarks Illinois in 1971. In addition, winners receive a $500 cash award.

The awards ceremony will be held on October 29, from 4:30 to 7:30 P.M. at The InterContinental Hotel, Chicago and is open to the public. Tickets are available at $40 for members and $50 for non-members. To make a reservation, contact Landmarks Illinois at 312-922-1742.

Landmarks Illinois would like to thank the members of this year's awards jury for generously donating their time and expertise: Jean Follett, Historic Preservation Consultant, Hinsdale; Allison Garwood Freedland, AIA, Chicago; Allen Johnson, MacRostie Historic Advisors LLC, Chicago; Michael Lambert, ARRIS Architects + Planners, Plainfield; and Hank Norris, Brinkoetter & Associates Realtors, Decatur
