Sullivan Center to Receive Statewide Preservation Award

Chicago, Ill. – On Saturday, October 29, the Sullivan Center in Chicago will be honored with the “Project of the Year Award” by Landmarks Illinois as part of the Richard H. Driehaus Foundation Preservation Awards. This 17th-annual event honors individuals, organizations, and projects throughout the state that represent excellence in historic preservation.

“This year’s award-winning projects are a testament to the deep commitment of preservationists across the state,” said Jim Peters, President of Landmarks Illinois.

Joseph Freed and Associates purchased the former Carson Pirie Scott and Company Building in 2001 with the intent to restore the State Street anchor it to its original glory. This Louis Sullivan-designed building has been a centerpiece of the Loop since the late 1890s.

As part of the award-winning restoration effort, all of the signature ornamental ironwork was removed, restored, and reinstalled. In addition, the building’s long-missing cornice and colonnade were reconstructed.

A financial partnership between the owners and the City of Chicago made this remarkable restoration possible.

“The level of detail of this project sets the bar for future restoration projects of this scale,” stated the awards jury.

Other award winners around the state were:

- Ancel House, Glencoe—Restoration
- Champaign County Courthouse, Urbana—Reconstruction
- Classic Cinemas, Various Locations—Stewardship
- Clayville Restoration Project, Pleasant Plains—Advocacy
- Jay and Mary Matson, Galesburg—President’s Award for Lifetime Achievement
- Municipal Center River Wall and Plaza, St. Charles—Restoration
- Parkside Apartments, Kewanee—Adaptive Use
- Scully Building, Lincoln—Rehabilitation

Since 1994, Landmarks Illinois has been assisted by a generous grant from the Richard H. Driehaus Foundation to honor those whose work demonstrates a commitment to excellence in historic preservation and inspire others to take action to preserve, protect and promote historic resources throughout Illinois.

The award itself is a small-scale replica of the entrance arch and a portion of the Trading Room from Louis Sullivan's Chicago Stock Exchange building, which was demolished in 1972. The fight to save this important part of Chicago's built environment led to the founding of Landmarks Illinois in 1971. In addition, winners receive a $500 cash award.

The awards ceremony will be held on October 29, from 4:30 to 7:30 P.M. at The InterContinental Hotel, Chicago and is open to the public. Tickets are available at $40 for members and $50 for non-members. To make a reservation, contact Landmarks Illinois at 312-922-1742.

Landmarks Illinois would like to thank the members of this year's awards jury for generously donating their time and expertise: Jean Follett, Historic Preservation Consultant, Hinsdale; Allison Garwood Freedland, AIA, Chicago; Allen Johnson, MacRostie Historic Advisors LLC, Chicago; Michael Lambert, ARRIS Architects + Planners, Plainfield; and Hank Norris, Brinkoetter & Associates Realtors, Decatur
