Dan McCaffery

McCaffery Interests is a full-service commercial real estate company that has been in the business of investing, developing, leasing and managing real estate for more than 25 years. The McCaffery Interests portfolio of planned, completed and managed projects exceeds 20 million square feet and includes, office, mixed-use, hotel and residential properties as well as large, master-planned communities and land developments. The firm currently has offices in Chicago, Greater Washington D.C., Pittsburgh and Denver.

Daniel McCaffery, CEO, is responsible for leading the vision, strategic direction and new business development for the company. Mr. McCaffery has more than 30 years of experience in the real estate industry and has led the development of more than $3 billion of urban mixed-use projects. Among them, McCaffery has successfully undertaken the preservation and redevelopment of a number of historic buildings. Chicago's Reliance Building, Pittsburgh's Armstrong Cork Factory, San Francisco's Argonaut Club, and Georgetown, Washington D.C.'s, Ford Motor Company Building, are among the most award-winning and financially successful preservation projects McCaffery has completed.

Currently, McCaffery is in the process of redevelopment of the former Children's Memorial Hospital campus in Lincoln Park, in partnership with Hines. Located at the intersection of Lincoln Avenue, Fullerton Parkway and Halsted Street, the project is poised to transform the six-acre site while once again incorporating the adaptive reuse of several historic structures, including two of the hospital's original terra cotta façade buildings, and its 1930 Puckey & Jenkins-designed Boiler Room and Laundry Building. Completion is anticipated in 2018.
