

LANDMARKS ILLINOIS

2016 Legendary Landmark Jennifer Pritzker

Jennifer N. Pritzker is a retired U.S. Army officer, investor, and philanthropist. She is President and CEO of Tawani Enterprises, Inc., President of the Tawani Foundation, Founder and Chair of the Pritzker Military Museum & Library. She served in the U.S. Army, Army Reserve, and Illinois Army National Guard from which she retired in 2001 as a lieutenant colonel with an honorary promotion to full colonel in the Illinois Army National Guard. She is a graduate of Loyola University Chicago with a B.A. in History and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. She received an honorary doctorate from Norwich University where she served as an active trustee for 10 years. Col Pritzker has written forewords for the following books: The Monroe Building: A Chicago Masterpiece Rediscovered and On War: The Best Military Histories; Dignity of Duty.

Col. Jennifer Pritzker is guided by her core beliefs that it is important to build inherent value in any business entity one owns. As an investor and philanthropist with an emphasis on communities, she is passionate about restoration, preservation and property management and understands it requires serious commitment and resources. With access to capital and dedicated to successful undertakings, Pritzker is able to create wealth, uplift communities, modernize neighborhoods, improve the quality of life and make an impact in a positive way. In the tradition of her family, Col. Pritzker follows their guiding principles by investing in commerce and philanthropy in the place where she lives.