Daniel Levin

Daniel Levin is a Chicago-based civic and business leader. He is Founder and Chairman of The Habitat Company, which, since 1972, has developed numerous residential buildings including market rate, affordable and condominium. Habitat currently has more than 23,000 units under management. Daniel is also founder and CEO of the East Bank Club, a Chicago fitness and social club that helped spark the revitalization of River North.

Daniel is a contributor to, and champion of, many important causes. He is also a member of the visiting committee of University of Chicago's Harris School of Public Policy; a Trustee of WTTW Channel 11, Chicago's public television station; a Trustee of Reconstructionist Rabbinical College; and Vice Chairman of the Board of Environmental Law and Policy Center.
