

Slate of Candidates for Election at Annual Meeting – 2021-2022

BOARD OF DIRECTOR CANDIDATES

First Three-Year Term

1. Joe Antunovich
2. Ciere Boatright
3. Jeff Goulette
4. Dr. Stacy Grundy
5. Jackie Taylor Holsten
6. Evan Jahn
7. Gregory Miller
8. Lauren Pacheco
9. Jennifer Spence
10. Sarah Van Domelen

Second Three-Year Term

1. Peter Babaian
2. Anthony Borich
3. Tracy Dillard
4. Chris Lee
5. Brad Moeller
6. Jeff Pezza
7. Sandra Rand
8. Ziad Salameh
9. Will Tippens

Third Three-Year Term

1. Jean Follett
2. Jack Tribbia

NEW BOARD MEMBER CANDIDATE BIOS – For First Three-Year Term

Joe Antunovich, Founding Principal and President, Antunovich Associates

Joseph M. Antunovich, FAIA is the Founding Principal and President of Antunovich Associates, a dynamic 100-person Architecture, Planning and Interior Design Firm with offices in Chicago, Washington, D.C., and Los Angeles. Joe also has specialized in the design of historic preservation and adaptive re-use projects that celebrate the rich urban context and history of cities across America. Over the years, Joe has participated passionately in a number of significant preservation projects that have ensured that our marvelous historic buildings are preserved for future generations. Joe is a native of New Zealand and earned a Masters of Architecture degree from the University of Southern California. He previously served as President of the Landmarks Illinois Board of Directors and has donated many pro bono design hours to benefit the organization's partner projects.

Ciere Boatright, Vice President, Real Estate and Inclusion, Chicago Neighborhood Initiatives

Ciere Boatright is the Vice President, Real Estate and Inclusion for Chicago Neighborhood Initiatives, Inc. Since joining Chicago Neighborhood Initiatives (CNI) in 2013, Ciere has managed the planning and development of new projects, including Pullman Park, the 180-acre mixed use site at 111th Street and I-94, where CNI has coordinated over $350 million of new investment and created nearly 1,500 new jobs. In addition to planning and development, Ciere has been instrumental in leading CNI's community engagement process. By forging positive relationships with community groups, community members, she fostered widespread support for: Artspace, an innovative new work/live space now under construction; the new Whole Foods Distribution Center in Pullman; a new Mariano's in Bronzeville; and a new community center in Pullman, the largest year-round, indoor athletic complex of its kind in the region. Ciere spearheads CNI's efforts for diversity and inclusion: Through her management and project oversight, CNI has achieved between 30 to 50 percent minority business enterprise contractor participation in its projects. Active in the civic space, Ciere serves as a Commissioner for the Roseland Medical District and a Commissioner for SSA 71. Ciere proudly serves on the executive board of ULI's Women's Leadership Initiative and serves as a Link Unlimited volunteer and Sponsor. Ciere is a Leadership Greater Chicago Fellow and was recognized as one of Crain's 2019 Notable Women in Commercial Real Estate. Ciere received a Bachelor's degree from Hamilton College and a Master's in Urban Planning at University of Illinois Chicago in 2016.

Jeffrey Goulette, Principal, Sullivan, Goulette and Wilson

Jeffrey P. Goulette is co-founder of Sullivan, Goulette & Wilson Architects and serves as Design Principal. Throughout SGW's 25 years, Jeff has specialized in the design of multi-family residential developments, and his award-winning work has been featured in national and local publications, as well as on HGTV. He serves on the board of Landmarks Illinois, where he chairs LI's Fund and Easement Committee, and on the board of the Chicago Chapter of the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art. He's also a member of the Home Builders Association of Greater Chicago, the Congress for New Urbanism, and the Association of Licensed Architects. Jeff earned a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the University of Michigan.

Dr. Stacy Grundy, Vice President, Route History, Inc.

Stacy, the Vice President of Route History, Inc., is a public health practitioner, researcher, and health equity champion, has a distinguished 10+ year career that reflects driving innovative, cost-effective population health strategies within healthcare systems and diverse communities. Her practice and research focuses on the drivers of health inequities among underserved, vulnerable, and marginalized populations. Dr. Grundy is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign where she received her B.S. in Human Nutrition. Dr. Grundy also holds a Master of Public Health in Health Promotion and Behavioral Sciences from the University of Texas Health Science Center-Houston, and a Doctorate in Public Health in Advanced Practice Leadership from the University of South Florida, College of Public Health.

Jackie Taylor Holsten, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Holsten Real Estate Development Corporation, Chair, Holsten Human Capital Development Corporation, NFP

Jackie Taylor Holsten is Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Holsten Real Estate Development Corporation and Chair of the nonprofit Holsten Human Capital Development. Ms. Taylor Holsten spearheads property management of all housing types in the Holsten portfolio and ensures the healthy blend of its buildings and residents to create thriving communities. Holsten Real Estate Development Corp. has developed more than $500,000,000 in mixed-income, mixed-use housing, and commercial development throughout Chicago, becoming a leading innovator in multi-layered development financing, resident and commercial screening and selection, fiscal and asset management, resident services, and property management. Holsten Human Capital Development, NFP (HHCD) is a non-profit, charitable organization with the mission to strengthen at-risk populations by expanding their access to viable resources that promote self-sufficiency, wellness and stability through comprehensive service provision, developing low income and affordable housing, and fostering economic development. Ms. Taylor Holsten earned her juris doctor from Loyola University and has served as a Trustee on the university's Board of Trustees.

Evan Jahn, LEED ND AP, WELL AP, Vice President, JAHN

Evan is passionate about environmental policy and sustainable design. After receiving his master's degree from IIT in Environmental Management and Sustainability, he began as a green analyst with Howard Ecker + Company, a green office consultancy, for four years. He then moved to Chicago integrated design / build firm Forum Studio and Clayco to become their Environmental and Sustainable Policy Analyst and BIM Manager for the next six years. Highlights and major accomplishments included working to deliver the largest LEED v3 Platinum Core & Shell project in United States, as well as a leadership role in developing a transition to digital and paperless jobsites that enhanced reporting and dashboards to feed rapid data around project safety and quality metrics. After his term at Clayco, Evan moved on to become a developer, investor and entrepreneur with FG Holdings wanting to manage both the development and design process. He joined JAHN, his father Helmut Jahn's design firm, a year ago as Vice President. Evan is eager to volunteer his sustainable policy expertise pertaining to Landmarks Illinois' Guiding Principle to fight climate change and promote environmental justice.

Gregory Miller, Partner, Miller & Ferguson

Gregory Miller has been an attorney with the firm of Miller & Ferguson for nearly 34 years. He specializes in commercial real estate development and finance and corporate law. His experience is in corporate and commercial law including new enterprise structure and formation, commercial transactions, and commercial financing. Additional expertise includes affordable housing development and financing including Low Income Housing Tax Credits, Historic Tax Credits, tax exempt bonds, and Tax Increment Financing. Gregory has a B.A. in Business for Morehouse College, his J.D.

from DePaul University School of Law, and a Master of Laws (LLM) in Taxation from Chicago-Kent College of Law – Illinois Institute of Technology.

Lauren Pacheco, Director, Arts Programming & Engagement, Indiana University Northwest

Lauren M. Pacheco is a third-generation Mexican-American born and raised on Chicago's southwest side. She is an arts and culture practitioner with 15 years of professional experience in arts administration, curation and project management. Her experience is grounded in social practice and public engagement with a personal mandate to responsibly and respectfully invest in targeted communities. Pacheco has become a resource to policymakers and has helped engage in the public dialogue about issues that impact artists and creative enterprises.

She is co-founder of the Chicago Urban Art Society, the Chicago Lowrider Festival and, in 2012 – 2015 Pacheco developed and curated the award winning public art initiative, 'Art in Public Places' along the 16th street viaduct in Chicago's Pilsen community. In September 2017, Pacheco won a public art grant that will transform outdoor vacant space in Gary, Indiana into a walkable, art-park. Additionally, Pacheco serves as Artistic Director for #PAINTGARY, an initiative bringing over 40 pieces of public art to Downtown Gary's historic Broadway Avenue.

Currently she serves on the executive board with Chicago Creative Reuse Exchange (CCRx), and steering committee member with the Indiana Arts Commission. She has received grant funding from the Knight Foundation, Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, Legacy Foundation, Chicago Community Trust and the National Association for Latinos Arts and Cultures. Pacheco has presented, and guest lectured with Creative Mornings Chicago, the Association of Arts Administration Educators, Illinois Institute of Technology's School of Architecture, Pratt Institute, the University of Chicago, Michigan State University, the Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events, among others. She holds degrees from Northwestern University, Evanston, IL (Communication Studies), School of the Art Institute of Chicago (Arts Administration and Policy) and, the University of Illinois at Chicago (Social Work). Pacheco is faculty lecturer at Indiana University Bloomington, and currently works as Director of Arts Programming and Engagement at Indiana University Northwest in the Fine Arts Department.

Jennifer Spence, Director of Marketing, Banterra Bank

Jennifer Spence was born and raised in Carterville, Illinois. Currently, she is Director of Marketing for Banterra Bank, a $2-billion-asset bank based in Southern Illinois with 40 locations in Arizona, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Missouri. A huge portion of her career was in tourism marketing, however. She lived in Nashville, Tennessee for 20+ years and worked at multiple ad agencies, but most extensively as Director of Marketing and Sales for Gaylord Entertainment's attraction division (seven+ years) and most recently as Assistant Commissioner of Marketing for State of Tennessee's Tourism Department (five years). Her love for historic preservation and downtown revitalization accelerated during this position as she experienced wonderful examples throughout the state and country.

Sarah Van Domelen, Senior Associate, WJE

Sarah Van Domelen is a professional engineer and senior associate for Wiss, Janney, Elstner Associates (WJE). Sarah holds a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Michigan State University and a Master of Science in Historic Preservation from the University of Pennsylvania. Sarah is a member of the Association for Preservation Technology International and a member of Landmarks' Illinois Skyline Council.