

News of the Architects

The Chicago Woman's Drafting club will hold its next monthly meeting

MISS ETHEL V.
LUND.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Room 1602, Ashland block, and according to Miss Ethel V. Lund, daughter of Architect Anders G. Lund and chairman of the entertainment committee, all girls actively interested in structural, architectural or mechanical lines, either in the office, drafting room or selling [Daguerre Photo.] end, are invited to attend. Miss Elizabeth Martini, president of the club and the only licensed woman architect in the city, will preside. Mrs. J. J. Friedman has recently been elected a vice president of the organization.

Joseph H. Klaffer, architect, who has been associated for the last fifteen years with his brother, David Saul Klaffer, is now in practice for himself with offices in the American Bond & Mortgage building, 127 North Dearborn. His phone is Dearborn 2838.

Architect William C. Presto has moved his offices from 179 West Washington to Suite 726 in the Conway building, 111 West Washington. His new phone is Franklin 1407.

Rissman & Hirschfeld have outgrown their offices in the City Hall Square building and moved yesterday to much larger quarters in Suite 1110 Garrick Theater building. Their phone is the same.

William P. Doerr also is moving into larger offices. On May 1 he will occupy Room 1600 in the Steger building, on the same floor as his present suite.