ABOUT GARFIELD PARK CONSERVATORY

Garfield Park Conservatory is one of the largest and most stunning conservatories in the nation. Often referred to as "landscape art under glass," the Garfield Park Conservatory features 12 acres of public greenhouse space and outdoor gardens. The conservatory serves as a centerpiece of the 184-acre Garfield Park designed by William LeBaron Jenney on Chicago's redeveloping West Side.

ABOUT SKYLINE COUNCIL

Skyline Council is Landmarks Illinois' young and emerging leaders committee. Since 2011, the council has engaged young professionals in Landmarks Illinois' work. These young leaders serve as ambassadors for the organization's mission to preserve, protect and promote architectural and historic resources in Illinois through advocacy and education. The council's popular networking events, like the Skyline Social, raises money for Landmarks Illinois' advocacy programs and initiatives.

ABOUT LANDMARKS ILLINOIS
